Time to sleep!

DEAR ALL,

We are so thankful that in the first weeks after the birth Ulli was able to stay at home from work. Two 'full time' workers were definitely needed... Now we have slowly developed a 'routine' which works most of the times. Nathan and Caleb make us smile a lot, they are two healthy boys and it is so special to see how many new things they have already learned.

During the pregnancy and after the birth our desire to go back to Nepal got stronger and stronger. And we got the feeling that we would be ready again to leave quite soon.

A few weeks after the birth INF actually officially asked us to come back. They desperately need support in their finance team because the finance director Krishna is about to leave. It is his wish that Ulli will take over some of his responsibilities. That is quite a challenging request but we like the idea of being able to help in a very specific way.

Also at the same time a few colleagues and friends from our church in Nepal asked when we would come back. So we more and more got the impression that God is leading our path back to Nepal and that it would be the right step to take on this new task.

The first thing we did was to ask our home churches in Adelshofen and Hausen if they were willing to send us out. We are glad that both of them agreed. Our sending agency Provide would be happy to employ us again, too.

Our ministry in Nepal will again only be possible if we have enough financial support. As a family with two children we'd need a bit more than before. Through the donations that were continued during our time in Germany we have around 40 % of the monthly donations we need. If in September the (promised) monthly support will be at 80 %, it will be possible for us to leave again soon.

As a possible date of departure the beginning of November would be suitable. Since we have to be employed by Provide already two months before leaving Germany, we have made the decision to start working with Provide from September 1st onwards. So in September and October we will be on home assignment, spending time with our churches, giving some presentations and if the needed financial support is there we will be packing and saying goodbye to friends and family.

May we prayerfully ask you...: Could you be a part of our support team? We depend on people who are willing to pray for us, to encourage us and to support us financially (if you are interested please contact us at mail@tinaundulli.de). Thank you so much for your friendship!

Continue to be a blessing,

with Nathan & Caleb
